COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiffs Carlyle Aviation Management Limited ("CAML"), Accipiter Investments Aircraft 4 Limited ("Accipiter"), Vermillion Aviation (Two) Limited ("Vermillion"), Accipiter Holdings DAC ("Accipiter Holdings"), Maverick Aviation Holdings Ltd. ("Maverick"), Manchester Aviation Finance S.à r.l. ("Manchester"), Wells Fargo Trust Company, N.A., not in its individual capacity but solely in its capacity as Owner Trustee ("Wells Fargo"), and UMB Bank, N.A., not in its individual capacity but solely in its capacity as Owner Trustee ("UMB"), bring this Complaint against Defendant Frontier Airlines, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Frontier") for Defendant's breaches of multiple contracts and tortious interference with one or more Plaintiffs' prospective business advantage, and hereby allege as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Defendant is a commercial airline that leases 10 passenger aircraft, among others, that it uses in its business from certain of the Plaintiffs for which CAML acts as Servicer. Plaintiffs are the beneficial owners and lessors of those aircraft, as well as certain of their affiliates.

2. Plaintiffs and Defendant are parties to two litigations that are pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (“SDNY”), captioned Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 20-cv-09713-LLS, filed by Defendant on November 18, 2020 (the “2020 Litigation”), and Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 22-cv-02943-PAE, filed by Defendant on April 8, 2022 (the “2022 Litigation”, and together with the 2020 Litigation, the “SDNY Litigations”).

3. Despite the litigation between the parties, they have an ongoing business relationship. Indeed, in recognition of the need to work together cooperatively even in the midst of pending litigation, in October 2022, Plaintiffs and Defendant, at Defendant’s request, entered into a Non-Waiver and Preservation of Rights Agreement (the “Non-Waiver Agreement”). The Non-Waiver Agreement obligated the parties to “continue to cooperate in good faith regarding” a number of specified matters, which the agreement defines as “Lease Administration Activities.”

4. In addition, the aircraft Leases (defined below) each requires Defendant to cooperate with certain Plaintiffs on a range of different activities.

5. Specifically, Section 20.2(a) of each of the Leases states that “[e]ach of Lessor [i.e., UMB or Wells Fargo] and Owner Participant [i.e., Accipiter or Vermillion] (and any subsequent permitted assignee or transferee) shall have the right at any time . . . to transfer ownership or beneficial ownership, as applicable, of the Aircraft,” among other things. And, to ensure that Lessor and Owner Participant could accomplish their respective contractual obligations, they specifically bargained for an obligation for Frontier to cooperate with such transfer.

6. Section 20.2(b) of the Leases states that “Lessee [i.e., Frontier] shall comply with all reasonable requests of Lessor or Owner Participant, and at the expense of Lessor, to cooperate in effecting” any “transfer, novation, assignment, mortgage, grant or other disposition referred to in paragraph (a) above and will execute any and all consents, agreements, amendments or other instruments . . . in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Lessee . . . .”

7. Sections 20.2(a) and 20.2(b) of the Leases do not create an exception for Frontier’s obligations to further their positions in another litigation.

8. Rather than comply with its obligations under the Non-Waiver Agreement and the Leases, Frontier has engaged in serial and ongoing breaches of their obligations, in an attempt to gain leverage over Plaintiffs and force a settlement of the SDNY Litigations.

9. As detailed below, Plaintiffs have made repeated requests for Frontier to cooperate with certain Plaintiffs’ attempts to sell certain aircraft and refinance others. All of Plaintiffs’ contractual requests are industry standard, which any counterparty acting in good faith would comply with. But Frontier has unreasonably and unjustifiably withheld its consent.

10. To take one example, Plaintiffs have requested that Frontier consent to a security assignment for each of the aircraft and a lease assignment for certain of the aircraft. These security assignments and lease assignments have no impact on Frontier’s operations or interest in the aircraft. It would simply make it possible for certain Plaintiffs to sell or refinance the relevant aircraft. Such consents are granted as a matter of ordinary course in order to facilitate the widespread financing of the airline industry. But rather than grant the straightforward request, Frontier instead demanded that Plaintiffs include language in the security assignment documentation subordinating the financier's security interests in the aircraft to Frontier's unsecured claims in the SDNY Litigations, and subsequently demanded that Plaintiffs provide Frontier with either (i) a $60 million letter of credit for Frontier's benefit or (ii) a first lien mortgage against three of the aircraft selected by Frontier, to be perfected with filings on the International Registry and the Federal Aviation Administration's registry. This request is not just totally off-market; it is nonsensical. Virtually all of the monetary obligations under the Leases run from Frontier to Plaintiffs. In other words, Frontier is, in effect, the "borrower" under the leases and Plaintiffs are the "lenders." Frontier's request is akin to a homeowner demanding that his or her bank post a letter of credit to secure the bank's obligations under a mortgage. This is just one unreasonable request among many, the effect of which has been to prevent Plaintiffs from selling or refinancing their aircraft and, as explained below, has damaged Plaintiffs by approximately $ [REDACTED].

11. Accordingly, Plaintiffs have been forced to file this action for breach of contract and tortious inference of prospective business advantage.

THE PARTIES

12. Plaintiff Wells Fargo, not in its individual capacity but solely in its capacity as Owner Trustee under the Leases, is a national banking association with its designated main office in Ogden, Utah.

13. Plaintiff UMB, not in its individual capacity but solely in its capacity as Owner Trustee under the Leases, is a national banking association headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri.

14. Plaintiff Accipiter, Owner Participant for nine of the Leases and Guarantor for certain of those transactions, is a company incorporated under the laws of Ireland.

15. Plaintiff Vermillion, Owner Participant for one of the Leases, is a company incorporated under the laws of Ireland.

16. Plaintiff Accipiter Holdings, Guarantor for the other certain transactions involving Accipiter, is a company incorporated under the laws of Ireland.

17. Plaintiff Maverick is a company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands. Maverick was established by non-party Maverick Aviation Partnership LP, which is incorporated under the laws of Canada. Maverick indirectly owns Accipiter and Vermillion.

18. Plaintiff Manchester is a company incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg. Manchester is wholly owned by Maverick.

19. Plaintiff CAML is a company organized and existing under the laws of Bermuda with its principal place of business in Dublin, Ireland.

20. Defendant is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Colorado with its principal place of business in Denver, Colorado.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21. The New York Civil Practice Law and Rules ("CPLR") Section 3033(1) permits jurisdiction over a non-domiciliary defendant pursuant to the parties' consent in a written, valid contract.

22. CPLR Section 501 permits contractual provisions fixing venue.

23. Pursuant to Section 20.15 of the Leases, Frontier has submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court for "any suit, action or proceedings relating to" that agreement "or any matter between the parties arising under or in connection with" that agreement. Frontier also waived any objection to venue in this Court.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

I. THE LEASES

24. Defendant is a party to individual lease agreements for ten Airbus A320 aircraft (the “Leases”).<sup>1</sup> One Aircraft Lease Agreement, between UMB and Frontier, executed on March 16, 2020, with the aircraft bearing manufacturer’s serial number 10038, is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and is an excerpted example of the Leases. The ten Leases all contain substantially similar terms and the same format.

25. The counterparty in each Lease is either UMB or Wells Fargo, acting not in each of their individual capacities but solely as the “Owner Trustees” under the terms of a related trust agreement. Each Lease was signed by Frontier as the “Lessee” and either UMB or Wells Fargo as the “Lessor.”

26. Under each Lease, the Lessor acts for the beneficial owner of the aircraft, known as the “Owner Participant.”

27. Accipiter is the Owner Participant for nine of the Leases, and Vermillion is the Owner Participant for one Lease.

28. At the time the Leases were entered, Accipiter and Vermillion were affiliates of AMCK Aviation Holdings Ireland Limited (“AMCK Holdings” or “AMCK”).

29. The Owner Trustee (UMB or Wells Fargo) legally owns the aircraft, whereas the Owner Participant (Accipiter or Vermillion) is the beneficial owner of the aircraft. The Owner Trustee is also the Lessor, who leases the aircraft to Frontier to use as Lessee. The Servicer (CAML) (described below) manages the sale, lease, and financing of the aircraft.

30. The Lease has language that allows for the transfer of ownership of the aircraft pursuant to certain conditions. These provisions (cited below) govern transfers by the Lessors (UMB or Wells Fargo) or Owner Participants (Accipiter or Vermillion).

31. Section 20.2(a) of each of the Leases states that:

Each of Lessor and Owner Participant (and any subsequent permitted assignee or transferee) shall have the right at any time, at its own expense and upon prior written notice to Lessee, to transfer ownership or beneficial ownership, as applicable, of the Aircraft, or to assign (including to assign as security), mortgage, novate, transfer, grant participations in, or otherwise dispose of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Operative Documents, to any other person by outright transfer or assignment or collateral assignment or by operation of law and Lessee hereby consents to any such transfer or assignment; provided that . . . (i) Lessee shall have no greater financial obligation or liability under this Agreement and the other Lessee Documents as a result of such transfer based on the facts and circumstances existing and applicable laws in effect at the time of such transfer, than it would have had if such transfer had not taken place . . . (iii) in the case of a sale of the Aircraft by Lessor or transfer of the beneficial interest of Owner Participant in the Aircraft or a transfer (other than to an Affiliate of the Lessor Guarantor) of a controlling interest in the Owner Participant, any such assignee or transferee shall be a Permitted Transferee and shall unconditionally guaranty the obligations of Lessor under this Agreement pursuant to a Guarantee in form substantially similar to the Guarantee executed by Owner Participant in favor of Lessee unless the existing Lessor Guarantee will remain in full force and effect following such transfer. . . .

(Ex. 1 § 20.2(a).)

32. Section 20.2(b) of the Leases states that “Lessee [i.e., Frontier] shall comply with all reasonable requests of Lessor or Owner Participant, and at the expense of Lessor, to cooperate in effecting” any “transfer, novation, assignment, mortgage, grant or other disposition referred to in paragraph (a) above and will execute any and all consents, agreements, amendments or other instruments . . . in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Lessee . . .” (Ex. 1 § 20.2(b).)

33. Sections 20.2(a) and 20.2(b) of the Leases do not create an exception for Frontier’s obligations to further their positions in another litigation. In other words, the Leases do not have any terms giving Frontier the right to perfect its interests in any litigation.

34. Four of the aircraft are subject to purchase agreements executed between certain Plaintiffs and third-party purchasers, pursuant to which a third-party purchaser has agreed to purchase the aircraft.

35. All of the aircraft are subject to financing agreements executed between certain Plaintiffs and third-party financiers, pursuant to which the financier has agreed to finance the aircraft pursuant to a temporary financing. In addition, six of the aircraft (including one of the aircraft subject to a purchase agreement) are subject to refinancing agreements executed between certain Plaintiffs and third-party financiers pursuant to a long-term financing.

II. THE 2020 LITIGATION

36. On November 18, 2020, Frontier filed the 2020 Litigation. The 2020 Litigation named AMCK Holdings and certain Plaintiffs in this action, Accipiter, Vermillion, Wells Fargo, UMB, as defendants.

37. Frontier asserted claims for breach of contract, breach of implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, breach of the covenant of quiet enjoyment, promissory estoppel, and fraud, in connection with a Framework Agreement, entered into on March 15, 2020, by and between Frontier and AMCK Holdings.<sup>2</sup>

38. Discovery has closed in the 2020 Litigation and the defendants' motions for summary judgment filed therein are currently pending before the court.

III. THE CARLYLE/CK TRANSACTION

39. In December 2021, CK Asset Holdings Limited ("CK"), the then-current ultimate corporate parent and majority shareholder of AMCK Holdings, Accipiter and Vermillion, announced an agreement to sell its aircraft leasing business to Maverick. AMCK Holdings transferred its ownership in numerous corporate entities—including Vermillion—to Manchester, and then transferred its ownership interest in Manchester to Vermillion Aviation Holdings Limited (“Vermillion Holdings”).

40. In April 2022, Vermillion Holdings transferred Manchester and another company that was the shareholder of Accipiter Holdings to Maverick (the “Carlyle/CK Transaction”).

41. On April 12, 2022, the Carlyle/CK Transaction closed. As a result, the Owner Participants for the aircraft leased to Frontier were no longer indirectly owned by AMCK Holdings. Instead, they were indirectly owned by Maverick, and serviced by CAML.

42. The Carlyle/CK Transaction did not result in a change in the owner of any of the aircraft, which in each case remained the Wells Fargo or UMB, as applicable, and it did not result in a change in the Owner Participant or Guarantor of any Aircraft, which remained Vermillion, Accipiter or Accipiter Holdings, as applicable, and the Carlyle/CK Transaction did not change nor transfer the rights or obligations of any Lessor, Owner Participant or Guarantor.

43. Following the closing, CAML took on the role of Servicer under the Leases. On or about April 13, 2022, CAML provided Frontier with notices regarding this change.

IV. THE 2022 LITIGATION

44. Days before the Carlyle/CK Transaction closed, Frontier filed the 2022 Litigation. Complaint, Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 22-cv-02943-PAE (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 8, 2022), ECF No. 1. The 2022 Litigation named several Plaintiffs in this action as defendants, including Accipiter, Vermillion, Accipiter Holdings, Maverick, Manchester, Wells Fargo, and UMB. Frontier also named AMCK Holdings as a defendant.

45. On June 24, 2022, Frontier filed an amended complaint naming CAML as a defendant. Amended Complaint, Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 22-cv-02943-PAE

46. On September 16, 2022, Frontier filed a second amended complaint, adding Vermillion Holdings as a defendant. The second amended complaint contains claims of breach of contract, declaratory relief, and voidable transfer. Second Amended Complaint, Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 22-cv-02943-PAE (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 16, 2022), ECF No. 35. No other operators transacting with the Plaintiffs have filed a lawsuit against Plaintiffs with similar claims.

47. On October 7, 2022, several defendants jointly moved to dismiss Frontier's second amended complaint. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Second Amended Complaint, Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 22-cv-02943-PAE (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 7, 2022), ECF No. 38. Defendant Vermillion Holdings filed a separate motion to dismiss on November 10, 2022, due to failure of service of process. Motion to Dismiss the Second Amended Complaint, Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings, No. 22-cv-02943-PAE (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 10, 2022), ECF No. 45. The defendants' motions to dismiss are currently pending before that court.

V. THE NON-WAIVER "COOPERATION" AGREEMENT

48. Despite the pendency of litigation between certain Plaintiffs and Frontier, they still had business to conduct. At Frontier's request, in mid-2022, CAML began engaging with Frontier to facilitate ordinary course activities relating to the aircraft, including the sale or refinancing of the aircraft, leased by Frontier.

49. Sales and financings of aircraft are typical and ordinary course transactions, which have nothing to do with the litigations pending between the parties. Indeed, to make that clear, and to make clear that Plaintiffs were not trying to seek any advantage in a litigation, Plaintiffs agreed, at Frontier's request, to enter into an agreement that allowed the parties to continue working together on commercial and sale operations, among other ordinary course matters, without prejudicing their litigation positions.

50. On October 21, 2022, Plaintiffs and Frontier executed the Non-Waiver Agreement.

51. In relevant part, the Non-Waiver Agreement states the following:

Despite the existence of the [2022 Litigation] and the parties' respective claims and defenses asserted or potentially to be asserted therein, the Parties recognize the mutual operational benefits to the Parties from cooperating with each other in good faith regarding the day-to-day administration of the Lease Agreements and the Aircraft, including, without limitation, paying and accepting rent, processing and administering lease returns, Aircraft use reports, Aircraft registration renewals, Aircraft and record inspections, insurance certificates, consents, lease amendments, aircraft/lease financings, owner trustee and owner participant assignments and Aircraft sales (and related transfers, notices and acknowledgments, replacement of lessor guarantees, updated insurance certificates and matters ancillary thereto), warranty and insurance claims, notices, and the like in accordance with the terms of the Lease Agreements ("Lease Administration Activities"). Accordingly, the Parties hereby confirm that they will continue to cooperate in good faith regarding all Lease Administration Activities.

(Non-Waiver Agreement, Paragraph 4, attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (emphasis added).)

52. As described below, however, Frontier has utterly failed to comply with its obligations under the Non-Waiver Agreement and the Leases. Instead, Frontier has consistently been uncooperative and acted unreasonably and in bad faith for almost eight months in contravention of the Non-Waiver Agreement and the Leases. Plaintiffs made repeated requests for Frontier to cooperate with Plaintiffs' attempts to sell certain aircraft and refinance others, which Frontier was already obliged to do pursuant to the Leases and Non-Waiver Agreement. Frontier continued to be uncooperative, so Plaintiffs then offered a new guaranty, with a new guarantor worth hundreds of millions of dollars. This offer was made as an accommodation by Plaintiffs and was not required under the Leases. Instead of accepting Plaintiffs' offer, Frontier requested terms that are not market and are by no means industry standard—either (i) a letter of credit from CAML for Frontier's benefit or (ii) a first lien mortgage against three of the aircraft selected by Frontier—despite Frontier not being a financier of any of the aircraft.

VI. FRONTIER'S BREACHES

53. From mid-2022 through April 2023, certain Plaintiffs have tried to engage with Frontier in good faith to negotiate various ordinary-course agreements in connection with refinancing or sales of the Aircraft, including security notices and acknowledgments, internal trust transfers, lease assignments, a guaranty, and a guaranty termination, in order to effectuate the sale and financing of the aircraft.

54. Plaintiffs have requested that Frontier consent to a security assignment and lease assignment for certain of the aircraft subject to the Leases in order for Plaintiffs to sell or refinance the aircraft. These security assignments and lease assignments have no impact on Frontier's operations or interest in the aircraft. Such consents are granted as a matter of ordinary course in the airline industry, including by major U.S. air carriers, and have been granted by Frontier. The Leases, as is standard for operating leases with commercial airlines, expressly contemplate that security assignments and lease assignments will occur and require Lessee's cooperation with documentation that may be required in connection with such security assignments and lease assignments.

55. In November and December 2022, Frontier and CAML sent multiple letters regarding CAML's executed letters of intent to sell four leased aircraft, which CAML gave notice to Frontier of on November 16, 2022.

- a. On November 23, 2022, Frontier indicated that the purported transfers could be void pending the 2022 Litigation and made several requests for information regarding the transfers.
- b. On November 29, 2022, CAML provided responses to Frontier's requests for information, and CAML reminded Frontier that it agreed to cooperate in good faith regarding the administration of the leases of the aircraft, including with sales and financings, pursuant to the Non-Waiver Agreement.

- c. On December 1, 2022, Frontier indicated that it was entitled to evaluate and assess whether the transfers and security assignments will satisfy the transfer requirements of the Lease Agreements.

56. From December 5 to December 9, 2022, CAML contacted Frontier several times for updates on the draft security notices and the lease assignment document. CAML would email Frontier eight more times for a copy of the draft lease assignment, which Frontier insisted on drafting itself based on a form it had prepared, but never entered into, with AMCK. CAML did not receive the draft lease assignment from Frontier until January 22, 2023.

57. Frontier has also insisted on including language related to the SDNY Litigations in the security assignment notices and the lease assignment.

58. Frontier's proposed language in the security assignment notice is, in relevant part, as follows:

Each of the Lessor and the Security Trustee agrees, covenants, represents and warrants for the benefit of the Lessee that the security assignment transaction described hereunder (including any associated liens and encumbrances of Security Trustee) complies with the applicable terms and conditions of Clause 20.2 of the Lease and that pursuant to Clause 20.2(a)(ii) Lessee's rights, including but not limited to Lessee's rights as plaintiff and a judgment creditor (as applicable) arising from or in connection with the pending lawsuits filed in U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York as case numbers 1:22-cv-02943 and 1:20-cv-09713, including, without limitation, Lessee's right to collect and recover damages, shall not be restricted or otherwise prejudiced as a result of such security assignment transaction. Any prejudice to or loss of priority of Lessee's rights and interests as a judgement creditor as a result of the security assignment described herein shall be deemed a restriction to the Lessee's rights under the Lease and other Lessee's Documents. If any such restriction occurs, the Lessor and the Security Trustee shall immediately upon the request of the Lessee subordinate any liens, security interests, encumbrances and collection rights of the Security Trustee against property or assets, including, without limitation, against the Aircraft, the Lease Documents and monies held pursuant the Lease Documents, to the judgment creditor rights of the Lessee.

(Excerpt of Frontier's Security Assignment Redline received from Lane Powell via email on February 26, 2023, Paragraph 7, attached hereto as Exhibit 3.)

59. Frontier's proposed language in the lease assignment to UMB as the New Lessor is, in relevant part, as follows:

The purported transfer of the Aircraft and Lease (as such term is defined in Schedules 1 and 2 hereto) contemplated hereunder is subsequent to the purported sale of aircraft assets by CK Capital (Hong Kong) Limited and related entities to New Owner Participant Parent Assignor and related transactions (the "Specified Transaction"), which Specified Transaction was not consented to by Lessee and is being challenged by Lessee as novations conducted in violation of Clause 20.2 of the Lease and a fraudulent conveyance to prevent Lessee from collecting any potential judgement under the Actions (as defined below). Prior to the Specified Transaction, Lessee filed actions against Assignors, Existing Owner Participant, and other affiliates to Existing Owner Participant for breach of contract, fraud and other claims arising from the parties' dealings in connection with contracts among the parties including the Lease and other "Operative Documents" (as such term is defined in the Lease). As a result of these actions two cases are pending with the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") under case numbers 1:22-cv-02943 and 1:20-cv-09713 (collectively, the "Actions," each an "Action").

(A). In the Action bearing case number 1:22-cv-02943, Lessee has sought determinations that (1) Lessee was harmed by conduct by Assignor and other defendants and (2) that the Specified Transaction constitutes a lessor default under the Lease and other Operative Documents and with respect to the Specified Transaction, Lessee intends to seek an order declaring such novation as void and seek other available remedies. The named defendants in the Actions deny wrongdoing. Lessee is entering into this Agreement as an accommodation to Existing Owner Participant to facilitate daily operations of Lessor, but such accommodations by Lessee are done without waiver of any rights, remedies or contentions relating to the Actions, including, without limitation, Lessee's challenge of the validity of the Specified Transaction, right to void the Specified Transaction and right to recover damages from the defendants in the Actions.

(Excerpt of Frontier's Lease Assignment Redline received from Lane Powell via email on February 26, 2023, Background Section A, attached hereto as Exhibit 4.)

60. Frontier's proposed language is unreasonable because, among other reasons, it (i) requires the Lessor to agree that the Leases provide Lessee certain rights or benefits that are not stated in the Leases, including that the Lessee has a right to a particular priority position as a creditor pursuant to the Lease and that the Leases provide that the Lessee's claims under the SDNY Litigation not be prejudiced, (ii) require the Lessor's financier's security interest in any of Lessor's assets to be subordinated to the Lessee's judgement creditor rights, and (iii) memorialize that Lessor defaulted under the Leases, which is inaccurate.

61. Although it was under no obligation to do so, to try to respond to Frontier's purported concerns, and in an effort to mitigate the parties' losses and to facilitate the closure of sales or financings, on March 24, 2023, CAML sent Frontier a guaranty proposal.

62. The Guarantor under each Lease is currently Accipiter Holdings, Accipiter, or Vermillion. As part of the guaranty proposal, CAML has offered additional security to Frontier pursuant to a new "Guaranty," by proposing that Maverick Aviation (Ireland) DAC, a subsidiary of Maverick Aviation Partnership LP, having a net worth of hundreds of millions of US dollars, provide a guaranty in favor of Frontier as to payment of amounts determined to be owed to Frontier in the SDNY Litigations by a defendant that is a direct or indirect subsidiary of Maverick Aviation Partnership LP, pursuant to a final, non-appealable judgment.

63. After certain Plaintiffs and Frontier exchanged several proposals for the Guaranty, Frontier most recently sent a counterproposal on May 5, 2023. In Frontier's response, as opposed to granting Plaintiffs' straightforward request for a consent to a security assignment and lease assignment for certain of the aircraft, Frontier instead demanded that Plaintiffs provide Frontier with either (i) a $60 million letter of credit for Frontier's benefit, or (ii) a first lien mortgage against three of the aircraft selected by Frontier (which mortgages will be perfected with filings on the International Registry and the Federal Aviation Administration's registry).

64. All of the monetary obligations under the Leases run from Frontier to Plaintiffs. In other words, Frontier is, in effect, the "borrower" under the leases and Plaintiffs are the "lenders". Frontier's request is akin to a homeowner demanding that his or her bank post a letter of credit to secure the bank's obligations under a mortgage, which is unreasonable.

65. Frontier's constant stall tactics and unreasonable requests have caused Plaintiffs to suffer damages because certain Plaintiffs have been unable to move forward with the sale of the four aircraft for a combined total of approximately $ [REDACTED], from which Plaintiffs would make a profit of approximately $ [REDACTED]. Moreover, Plaintiffs have incurred millions of dollars in expenses that they would have avoided if they had been able to sell the aircraft months ago.

66. Frontier's tactics have also prevented certain Plaintiffs from closing on several refinancings of six aircraft from which Plaintiffs would have obtained equity proceeds of approximately $ [REDACTED], and would have stopped incurring certain other expenses.

67. CAML, as Servicer, sent a letter, dated April 27, 2023, to Frontier detailing Frontier's multiple breaches of the Leases, and attaching notices previously sent to Frontier informing Frontier of the certain contemplated transactions regarding the aircraft (the "April 27 Letter").

68. On May 3, 2023, Frontier sent a letter to CAML responding to the April 27 letter. In that letter, Frontier not only continued to refuse Plaintiffs' reasonable requests, but also incorrectly asserted, among other things, that CAML refuses to provide a guarantee for the proposed transfer. As a result, on May 26, 2023, Plaintiffs issued notices of default to Frontier under the relevant Leases.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(BREACH OF CONTRACT OF THE LEASES)

69. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege each allegation in paragraphs 1 through 68 above as if fully set forth herein.

70. The Leases are binding agreements.

71. Plaintiffs have fulfilled their obligations under the Leases.

72. Pursuant to Section 20.2(b) of the Leases, Defendant must cooperate in effecting any transfers of ownership of the aircraft and in refinancing the aircraft.

73. Defendant has breached its obligations under the Leases by acting unreasonably and in bad faith in the negotiations of transactions with Plaintiffs.

74. Defendant has therefore breached the Leases.

75. Defendant's breaches, which have prevented Plaintiffs from selling or refinancing the aircraft have harmed Plaintiffs in the form of additional interest and other amounts Plaintiffs have had to pay, as well as the proceeds that would have been realized from the sale of the aircraft.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(BREACH OF CONTRACT OF THE NON-WAIVER AGREEMENT)

76. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege each allegation in paragraphs 1 through 75 above as if fully set forth herein.

77. The Non-Waiver Agreement, requested by Defendant, is a binding agreement.

78. Plaintiffs have fulfilled their obligations under the Non-Waiver Agreement.

79. Pursuant to Paragraph 4 of the Non-Waiver Agreement, Defendant is required to cooperate with Plaintiffs in good faith in administering the Leases.

80. Defendant has defaulted on its obligations under the Non-Waiver Agreement.

81. Defendant has at every opportunity wrongfully stalled negotiations or made unreasonable requests with respect to the transactions and has thus failed to cooperate in good faith pursuant to the Non-Waiver Agreement.

82. Defendant therefore has breached the Non-Waiver Agreement.

83. Defendant's breaches, which have prevented Plaintiffs from selling or refinancing the aircraft have harmed Plaintiffs in the form of additional interest and other amounts Plaintiffs have had to pay, as well as the proceeds that would have been realized from the sale of the aircraft.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH PROSPECTIVE ECONOMIC ADVANTAGE)

84. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege each allegation in paragraphs 1 through 83 above as if fully set forth herein.

85. Certain Plaintiffs have signed sales contracts with third parties to sell certain aircraft. But to complete those sales, Defendant is required to provide certain consents, which are discussed above.

86. Defendant has interfered with this transaction by wrongfully withholding consent so as to apply pressure on Plaintiffs in connection with the SDNY Litigation, and in an attempt to extract a favorable settlement from Plaintiffs and CK.

87. Defendant's breaches, which have prevented certain Plaintiffs from selling or refinancing the aircraft, have harmed Plaintiffs in the form of additional interest and other amounts Plaintiffs have had to pay, as well as the proceeds that would have been realized from the sale of the aircraft.

  - (ii) such transfer shall not result in any restriction, based on the facts and circumstances existing and applicable laws in effect at the time of such transfer, on Lessee's rights under this Agreement or the other Lessee's Documents or on Lessee's use or operation of the Aircraft;

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Lessee hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the right to object to the service of process by Lessor, with respect to any Proceedings. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of Lessor to serve process in any other manner permitted by applicable law or to bring any legal action or proceeding or to obtain execution of judgment in any jurisdiction.
- (d) Lessee irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to itself and its property (irrespective of its use or intended use), all immunity on the grounds of sovereignty or other similar grounds from (i) suit, (ii) jurisdiction of any court, (iii) relief by way of injunction, order for specific performance or for recovery of property, (iv) attachment of its assets (whether before or after judgment) and (v) execution or enforcement of any judgment to which it or its revenues or assets might

20.17 Confidentiality

Each of Lessor and Lessee shall keep confidential the provisions of this Agreement that were redacted for filing with the FAA and any confidential information furnished or made available to them hereunder by the other party hereto, except:

- (a) each of Lessor and Lessee may make disclosure to the extent necessary to comply with the law, the valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or the request of a regulatory authority;
- (b) each of Lessor and Lessee may make disclosure as part of its normal reporting or review procedure to its parent companies (and, in the case of Lessor, to the Owner Participant and its Affiliates), its auditors, its attorneys, its regulators and its advisors; provided that, such parent companies, the Owner Participant, Owner Participant's Affiliates, auditors, attorneys and advisors will be bound by the provisions of this Clause;
- (c) each of Lessor and Lessee may make disclosure to the extent necessary to enforce its rights and remedies under this Agreement;
- (d) Lessor may make disclosures to any Lender or any potential Lender and to potential assignees and transferees and their respective auditors, attorneys and advisers, so long as Lessor obtains an undertaking of confidentiality from such persons on the terms substantially no less strict mutatis mutandis than this Clause; or
- (e) each of Lessor and Lessee may disclose such information as is in the public domain.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Clause 20.17, each of Lessor and Lessee (and any employee, representative, or agent of Lessor or Lessee) is expressly authorized to disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the U.S. federal and state tax treatment and U.S. federal and state tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Operative Documents, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses, if any) that are provided to it related to such tax treatment and tax structure.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused their duly authorized officers to execute and deliver this Agreement to be executed as of the date first above written.

Non-Waiver & Preservation of Rights Agreement

1. This Non-Waiver and Preservation of Rights Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into by FRONTIER AIRLINES, INC. (“Frontier”) and ACCIPITER INVESTMENT 4 LIMITED, VERMILLION AVIATION (TWO) LIMITED, ACCIPITER HOLDINGS DAC, CARLYLE AVIATION MANAGEMENT LIMITED, MAVERICK AVIATION HOLDINGS LTD., MANCHESTER AVIATION FINANCE S.a.r.l., WELLS FARGO TRUST COMPANY, N.A., solely in its capacity as OWNER TRUSTEE, and UMB BANK, N.A., solely in its capacity as OWNER TRUSTEE, individually or collectively as the context may require, “Carlyle”), and are referred to herein, individually as the “Party” and collectively as the “Parties”.
2. This Agreement applies to Lease Agreements (the “Lease Agreements”) for fourteen aircraft currently leased to Frontier for use in its operations and one Airbus model A320-214 aircraft bearing U.S. registration number N227FR which was redelivered to its lessor on July 21, 2022 (collectively, the “Aircraft”), the related Operative Documents (as defined in the Lease Agreements), and the other related documents and agreements that affect the Lease Agreements and the parties’ respective rights and responsibilities with respect to such leased Aircraft, and to certain transactions defined in the Lawsuit as “the December 2021 Transaction” and the “Carlyle Transaction.”
3. Frontier contends that Carlyle failed to comply with certain terms in the Lease Agreements regarding the transfer of interests to Carlyle. Frontier has filed a lawsuit captioned Frontier Airlines, Inc. v. AMCK Aviation Holdings Ireland Limited, et. al., USDC SDNY Case No. 1:22-cv-02943 (PAE) (“the Lawsuit”). Frontier’s Amended Complaint in the Lawsuit seeks, among other things, a declaration that Frontier is not deemed to have consented to certain transactions involving Carlyle and Carlyle-related entities, and an order directing that Frontier is relieved of certain obligations under the Lease Agreements until the December 2021 Transaction or the Carlyle Transaction is unwound, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. Carlyle denies any breach of the Leases and all other wrongful conduct, and opposes the relief requested by Frontier.
4. Despite the existence of the Lawsuit and the parties’ respective claims and defenses asserted or potentially to be asserted therein, the Parties recognize the mutual operational benefits to the Parties from cooperating with each other in good faith regarding the day-to-day administration of the Lease Agreements and the Aircraft, including, without limitation, paying and accepting rent, processing and administering lease returns, Aircraft use reports, Aircraft registration renewals, Aircraft and record inspections, insurance certificates, consents, lease amendments, aircraft/lease financings, owner trustee and owner participant assignments and Aircraft sales (and related transfers, notices and acknowledgments, replacement of lessor guarantees, updated insurance certificates and matters ancillary thereto), warranty and insurance claims, notices, and the like in accordance with the terms of the Lease Agreements (“Lease Administration Activities”). Accordingly, the Parties hereby confirm that they will continue to cooperate in good faith regarding all Lease Administration Activities.
5. The Parties also wish to ensure that any rights and defenses in connection with the claims asserted in the Lawsuit that may have arisen for either Party will not be waived or adversely affected by participating and cooperating in Lease

Administration Activities. Accordingly, unless otherwise agreed to in a writing executed by the relevant Parties, no Party shall be treated as having waived any contractual or extra contractual rights by engaging or participating in any Lease Administration Activity during the term of this Agreement.

6. The term of this Agreement shall begin April 13, 2022, and shall expire on the earlier of July 1, 2024 or 30 days after either Party gives written notice of termination.
7. This Agreement is subject to New York law without application of conflict of law principles.
8. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts.

We hereby notify you that:

- (1) By a Security Agreement, dated as of April 11, 2022 (the “Security Agreement”), among, the Lessor, the Borrower, the Security Trustee, the Servicer and the other parties named therein as grantors, the Lessor shall assign to the Security Trustee, as security, all of its rights, title and interest in, to and under the Lease and each of the other Operative Documents as defined in the Lease (the “Lease Documents”), effective as of the Effective Date, including certain insurance proceeds.

Any prejudice to or loss of priority of Lessee's rights and interests as a judgement creditor as a result of the security assignment described herein shall be deemed a restriction to the Lessee's rights under the Lease and other Lessee's Documents. THIS MASTER ASSIGNMENT, ASSUMPTION, AMENDMENT, ~~ACKNOWLEDGEMENT~~ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND CONSENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is dated as of _____, 2023 and made by and among WELLS FARGO TRUST COMPANY, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION (f/k/a Wells Fargo Bank Northwest, National Association), a national banking association organized and existing under the laws of the United States, with its address at ~~299 South Main Street, 5th Floor, MAC: U1228-051, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111-9062~~ Old Annapolis Road, Columbia, MD 21045, not in its individual capacity, but solely as Owner Trustee (“Assignor” or “Existing Lessor”); and UMB BANK, N.A., a national banking association organized under the laws of the United States of America with its address at 6550 S. Millrock Drive, Suite 150, Salt Lake City, UT 84121, not in its individual capacity, but solely as Owner Trustee (“Assignee” or “New Lessor”); and FRONTIER AIRLINES, INC., a Colorado corporation with its address at 4545 Airport Way, Denver, Colorado 80239 (“Lessee”); and ACCIPITER INVESTMENTS AIRCRAFT 4 LIMITED, ~~an Irish, a [Ireland~~ limited company] with its address at ~~Connaught House 1 Burlington Road, Dublin 4, Ireland [.]~~ (“Existing Owner Participant”); ACCIPITER HOLDINGS DAC<sup>1</sup>); and MAVERICK AVIATION TL (D) LIMITED, an Irish [Ireland limited company] with its address at ~~Connaught House 1 Burlington Road, Dublin 4, Ireland (“Existing Guarantor”); MAVERICK AVIATION TL (D) LIMITED, an Irish limited company with its address at Connaught House 1 Burlington Road, Dublin 4, Ireland [.]~~ (“New Owner Participant”<sup>2</sup>); and MAVERICK AVIATION BORROWER 1 LTD., a [Cayman Islands limited company] with its address at ~~Connaught House 1 Burlington Road, Dublin 4, Ireland [.]~~ (“New Parent Guarantor”<sup>2</sup>); and MAVERICK AVIATION HOLDINGS LTD., a [Cayman Islands limited company] (“New Owner Participant Parent Assignor”); and ACCIPITER HOLDINGS DAC, an Irish limited company (“Existing Guarantor”) with respect to the New Owner Participant Ownership Transfer.

BACKGROUND:

The purported transfer of the Aircraft and Lease (as such term is defined in Schedules 1 and 2 hereto) contemplated hereunder is subsequent to the purported sale of aircraft assets by CK Capital (Hong Kong) Limited and related entities to New Owner Participant Parent Assignor and related transactions (the “Specified Transaction”), which Specified Transaction was not consented to by Lessee and is being challenged by Lessee as novations conducted in violation of Clause 20.2 of the Lease and a fraudulent conveyance to prevent Lessee from collecting any potential judgement under the Actions (as defined below). Prior to the Specified Transaction, Lessee filed actions against Assignors, Existing Owner Participant, and other affiliates to Existing Owner Participant for breach of contract, fraud and other claims arising from the parties’ dealings in connection with contracts among the parties including the Lease and other “Operative Documents” (as such term is defined in the Lease). As a result of these actions two cases are pending with the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) under case numbers 1:22-cv-02943 and 1:20-cv-09713 (collectively, the “Actions,” each an “Action”).

(A). <sup>2</sup>In the Action bearing case number 1:22-cv-02943, Lessee has sought determinations that (1) Lessee was harmed by conduct by Assignor and other defendants and (2) that the Specified Transaction constitutes a lessor default under the Lease and other Operative Documents and with respect to the Specified Transaction, Lessee intends to seek an order declaring such novation as void and seek other available remedies. The named defendants in the Actions deny wrongdoing. Lessee is entering into this Agreement as an accommodation to Existing Owner Participant to facilitate daily operations of Lessor, but such accommodations by Lessee are done without waiver of any rights, remedies or contentions relating to the Actions, including, without limitation, Lessee’s challenge of the validity of the Specified Transaction, right to void the Specified Transaction and right to recover damages from the defendants in the Actions.

<sup>2</sup>Note to LP: As discussed, we have moved more express references to the litigation to Schedule 7.
